

Academic Research Centers

---

AskERIC—AskERIC

Over 3000 resources on a variety of educational issues. This collection includes Internet sites, educational organizations, and electronic discussion groups. Part of the Educational Resources Education Center (ERIC).

For more information go to: www.askeric.org

Milken Exchange on Education Technology—MFF

Information and research on integrating technology into schools

For more information go to: www.mff.org/edtech

---

Associations and Professional Organizations

---

American Association of School Administrators—AASA

AASA, founded in 1865, is the professional organization for over 14,000 educational leaders across America and in many other countries. AASA's mission is to support and develop effective school system leaders who are dedicated to the highest quality public education for all children.

For more information go to: www.aasa.org

Association for Educational Communications & Technology—AECT

The Association for Educational Communications and Technology provides leadership in educational communications and technology by linking professionals holding a common interest in the use of educational technology and its application to the learning process.

For more information go to: www.aect.org

Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development—ASCD

An international, nonprofit, nonpartisan association of professional educators whose jobs cross all grade levels and subject areas. In their diversity, our members share a profound commitment to excellence in education. Founded in 1943, ASCD's mission is to forge covenants in teaching and learning for the success of all learners.

For more information go to: www.ascd.org

Association of School Business Officials International—ASBO

ASBO International is a professional association which provides programs and services to promote the highest standards of school business management practices, professional growth, and the effective use of educational resources.

For more information go to: www.asbointl.org

Consortium for School Networking—CoSN

The Consortium for School Networking (CoSN), a national nonprofit organization, promotes the use of information technologies and the Internet in K-12 education to improve learning. Our members represent school districts, state and local education agencies, nonprofits, companies and individuals who share our vision.

For more information go to: www.cosn.org

Education Law Association—ELA

Education Law Association, formerly NOLPE, is a nonprofit, nonadvocacy organization that promotes interest in and understanding of the legal framework of education and the rights of students, parents, school boards and school employees.

For more information go to: www.educationlaw.org

International Society for Technology in Education—ISTE

ISTE is a nonprofit professional organization with a worldwide membership of leaders and potential leaders in educational technology. We are dedicated to promoting appropriate uses of information technology to support and improve learning, teaching, and administration in K-12 education and teacher education.

For more information go to: www.iste.org

National Association of Elementary School Principals—NAESP

The mission of the National Association of Elementary School Principals is to lead in the advocacy and support for elementary and middle level principals and other education leaders in their commitment to all children.

For more information go to: www.naesp.org

National Association of Independent Schools—NAIS

The National Association of Independent Schools, governed by a board of directors, represents over 1,100 independent schools and associations in the United States and abroad. NAIS acts as the national voice of independent pre-collegiate education and as the center for collective action on behalf of its membership.

For more information go to: www.nais.org

National Association of Secondary School Principals—NASSP

The National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP) began modestly in 1916 when just 78 high school principals initiated its establishment. Now, nearly 40,000 middle level and high school principals, assistant principals, and aspiring school leaders from across the United States and more than 60 other countries around the world call themselves members. "Excellence in School Leadership" is their relentless goal, and in order to meet it, they provide members with various programs and services to guide them in administration, supervision, curriculum planning and staff development.

For more information go to: www.nassp.org

National Council of Teachers of Mathematics—NCTM

The mission of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics is to provide the vision and leadership necessary to ensure a mathematics education of the highest quality for all students. Founded in 1920, NCTM is the world's largest mathematics education organization, with more than 100,000 members and 250 Affiliates throughout the United States and Canada.

For more information go to: www.nctm.org

National Middle School Association—NMSA

Since its inception in 1973, National Middle School Association (NMSA) has been a voice for those committed to the educational and developmental needs of young adolescents. NMSA is the only national education association dedicated exclusively to the growth of middle level education with over 30,000 members representing principals, teachers, central office personnel, professors, college students, parents, community leaders, and educational consultants across the United States, Canada, and 45 other countries.

For more information go to: www.nmsa.org

National Science Teachers Association—NSTA

The National Science Teachers Association (NSTA), founded in 1944 and headquartered in Arlington, Virginia, is the largest organization in the world committed to promoting excellence and innovation in science teaching and learning for all. NSTA's current membership of more than 53,000 includes science teachers, science supervisors, administrators, scientists, business and industry representatives, and others involved in and committed to science education.

For more information go to: www.nsta.org

Phi Delta Kappa International—

An international education association. Resources include information on technology, education reform, school safety and more.

For more information go to: www.pdkintl.org

Software Information Industry Association—SIIA

Software & Information Industry Association (SIIA) has brought together the leading companies of the software and information industry, expanding market opportunities and forging the way toward a stronger industry. SIIA is the only trade association with a global reach that provides a credible, unifying voice for all businesses that provide the software and information that underpin the digital economy.

For more information go to: www.sii.net